Dear Mr. Steinberg:

This will confirm our telephone conversation following the hearing on your Motion for a Temporary Restraining Order. The order of Judge Steeh in case No. 04-CV-40279 applies on to the Plaintiff, Kent Fehribach, Jr. However, Judge Steeh unequivocally indicated at the hearing that a similar ruling would be extended to a class action if such a lawsuit were to be filed. Although the City of Troy still contends that our political sign ordinance, Chapter 85-A, is constitutional and valid, as of today's date, the City of Troy (and its agents, officers, servants, and employees) is willing to temporarily suspend enforcement of sections (3)(b)(1) and (3)(b)(2) of the Chapter 85-A of the City of Troy Ordinances. This temporary suspension will last only until a subsequent ruling is received from Judge Gadola, as a result of a hearing on your motion for a preliminary injunction, which is scheduled for October 8, 2004.

If you have any questions concerning the above, please feel free to contact me at (248) 524-3323.

Sincerely,

Lori Grigg Bluhm
City Attorney
