The Legislative Open Records Act

Fix Michigan's FOIA law to remove the blanket exemption for the Legislature and the Governor's Office.

The Legislative Open Records Act (HB 4148 – 4157) will:

- Update Michigan Freedom of Information laws by eliminating barriers to accessing records of the Legislature and Governor's office.
- Provide guidance for the courts and future legislatures on the importance of the public's right to know.
- Secure government transparency and accountability so that what happened in Flint doesn't happen again.
