Briefing Notes

Meeting with Iraqi Deputy Foreign Minister
NIZAR ISSA ABDUL-HADI AL-KHAIRALLA

Bottom Line Up Front: Your objectives for the meeting are to 1) [REDACTED] [REDACTED] 2) stress the need for Iraq to issue travel documents for Iraqi nationals with final orders of removal from the United States in a timely manner; and 3) [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

Themes for the Meeting: You expect the meeting to adopt three themes:

- [REDACTED]
2. The DFM will likely ask how Iraq can be removed from the "ARON" list regarding repatriations.
- Note that Iraq will need to issue travel documents for Iraqi nationals with final orders of removal from United States within 30 days of ICE/ERO making the request. Emphasize the need for cooperation on charter flights that will be used to transport Iraqi nationals with such orders back to Iraq.
 - According to ICE, Iraqis ordered removed for the first time after the June 24, 2017, injunction are not subject to the injunction and therefore can still be removed.
- [REDACTED]
- [REDACTED]

Background on Injunction against Removals:

- On July 24, 2017, the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan issued a nation-wide order stopping removals to Iraq for all Iraqi nationals in the United States who had a final order of removal on June 24, 2017, and who have been, or will be, detained by U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE). This order was issued in a class action case called Hamama v. Adducci, No. 17-cv-11910 (E.D. Mich.). (Note: ICE is the defendant. The ACLU is spearheading the suit on behalf of the Iraqis.)
- The court documents site concerns for the safety of the Iraqis if removed back to Iraq.
