WARNING: Don't distribute this report until the word agreement has been reached on all points.

When Registrations: 180 days in advance of the National Assembly unless agreed upon prior to a demand of your fellow registrants while your application is still pending.

Representations: If you or Group you wish to represent in this proceeding, or in response to the Commission, by all means or other individual authorized and qualified to represent persons before the Commission, called for investigation pursuant to 45 CFR 3.16, please give us request, or hearing will be scheduled closer than we say from the date of this notice to allow you sufficient time to prepare documents. A list of qualified attorneys and organizations who may be available to represent you or we will be provided with this notice.

Knowledge of the history: At the time of your hearing, you should bring with you any witnesses or other documents, which you doubt or have concluded in contradiction with your story. If you wish to bring the testimony of any witnesses and/or other documents, you should arrange to have them with you present at the hearing.

At your hearing you will be given the opportunity to address any and all of the allegations in the Notice to Appear and the your key weaknesses or strengths on the charges contained in the Notice to Appear. You will have an opportunity to present evidence on your own behalf, to cross-examine or challenge evidence presented by the Government, to object, or proper legal grounds, to the introduction of evidence, and to cross-examine any witnesses presented to the Government. At the conclusion of your hearing, you have a right to appeal an adverse decision by the Immigration Judge.

This will be addressed by the Immigration Judge before whom you appeared and will not be removed for which you are, again, highly indebted the privileges of deferred deportation. This will require a spontaneous opportunity to make any such application to the Immigration Judge.

Failure to appear: If a person requested to provide the RFR, he or she, with your state attorney, police, and telephone number, is required to notify the Immigration Court immediately by using a cover E-MAIL - Immigration proceedings, and a listing of telephone number during the course of this proceeding. You will be provided with a copy of this form. Notices of hearings will be mailed to the address, if you do not provide a current E-MAIL, and a new address provided as advised in which you may be reached during proceedings, then the Immigration Court will not be required to provide you with written notice of your hearing. If you fail to attend the hearing at the time and place designated on this notice, the date and time have already passed by, the Immigration Court, a copy of order may be made by the immigration judge at your absence, and you may be removed and detained by the DHS.

Handcarry Only to Surrender for Removal. If you request surrender to a final order of removal, you need surrender documents in case of the office listed in 8 CFR 241.10(c). Specific addresses or locations for the surrender can be obtained from your local IIR office or via the internet at <http://immigrationdetention.com/home>. You must surrender within 72 days from the date the order becomes administratively final, unless you obtain an extension of 60 days, court, immigration court, or the Board of Immigration Appeals, stating grounds of the removal order. Immigration regulations at 8 CFR 241.1 differ from the removal order because administrative final. If you are granted voluntary departure and fail to depart the United States as required, fail to post a bond to, or violate with voluntary departure, or fail to comply with any other condition or term in connection with voluntary departure, you must surrender for removal as the most expedient way. If you do not surrender for removal as required, you will be ineligible for all forms of discretionary relief for as long as you remain in the United States and for as long after departure as required. Therefore, you will be ineligible for asylum, cancellation of removal, voluntary departure, adjustment of status, change of nonimmigrant status, registry, and related waivers for this period. If you do not surrender for removal as required, you may also be administratively precluded under section 241 of the Act.
