So if I assisted on another one and they asked me to write that ticket for them, I might have. I don't remember any of it because it's not something that stands out in my mind.  Q. Okay.  A. Just I mean probably, probably have wrote it.  Q. Okay. And you certainly did here, right?  A. According to the paperwork.  Q. Okay. And that ticket was issued not based on your own decision, based on what you observed that person doing, but rather it was based on what you were told to do by vice enforcement, is that right?	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22	(Marked Exhibit No. 6.)  Q. (Continuing, by Ms. James) I've just handed you what's marked as Exhibit. No. 6. The first page says Detroit Police Department Officer Information Report. The following pages are in a landscape format and the second page says at the top Citizen Complaint Report Filed Against DPD Officer and this is the record for Kathleen Singleton. Have you seen either of these documents before?  A. No.  Q. Okay. I'd just like to direct your attention to the first page. The second entry there BPC #01-0130 CCR #30907. It says, Allegation, procedure; findings, improper c; unit, Fourth Precinct; closed August 2nd, 2001. Do you have any recollection of a finding of improper conduct for procedure around that time in 2001?  A. No.  Q. Okay.  A. Not a clue.  Q. You can't tell me what kind of conduct was complained of?

A negative complaint in my file.  Anything else? That I remember, no, I don't. So no retraining, suspension, nothing else that you recall?  No. Okay. Do you know whether there have been any other lawsuits filed against you for your actions while on duty as a Detroit police officer other than the one that brings us here today?  Yes. Okay. And do you know approximately how many? One that I can remember, just one that I remember. Okay. What do you remember about that one? The guy was upset because he was going to jail. Well, we were investigating his son. He swung on a police officer. We had to physically hold him to cuff him that I remember or something to that effect. Okay. Do you remember approximately what year

Other than that, no, I wouldn't know.  Q. Okay.  A. I don't look them up or anything.  Q. Do you have any knowledge of whether or not your supervisor is informed of the outcome of these investigations?  A. I think you would have to contact the office of the chief investigator. They would be the ones that keep track of this.  Q. But you don't know whether or not your supervisor is informed, is that what you're saying?  A. That the supervisor you're asking me a question that there is really no yes or no answer to.  Q. I'm asking whether or not you know whether your supervisor is notified.  A. Then I don't know.  Q. All right.  (Marked Exhibit No. 7.)  Q. (Continuing, by Ms. James) All right. I've handed you what was just marked as Exhibit No. 7. And when has that occurred?  I'm not trying to be sarcastic, but during the 15 years that I've been on this job, the dates, I don't remember. I've had I've never received any days off for nothing, so none of my complaints or anything, I may have been found

You would have to look in the file and get the rest of the details, but as far as I know, that's what the gist of it was about.  Q. Okay. And do you recall what the outcome of that lawsuit was?  A. I think he received cash money for it.  Q. Okay. Do your remember a lawsuit in which you were a named defendant by a person named Gary Russell Annas?  A. No.  Q. Okay. Do you remember a lawsuit in which you were a named defendant by a person named Yvonne Taylor?  A. Mm-mm, no. I'm sorry. No. I apologize.  Q. Thank you. Do you remember a lawsuit in which you were a named defendant by a person of the name Vester, V-e-s-t-e-r, Squires?  A. I think that's the one I'm talking about.  Q. Okay. To your knowledge has there ever been any internal investigation that occurred arising from a lawsuit against you?  A. Such as? I'm sorry. Could you explain?	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23	Q. A. Q. A. Q. A. Q.	have acted improperly at the conclusion of those investigations?  To be perfectly honest with you, I do not keep track of them. I don't know what the outcome is.  They call me down there to make a statement. I make my statement and I'm done with it. I don't know what the outcome is. I don't even try to follow it.  Okay. And do you know who does track the outcome of those? Only if you know, only if you know? Internal affairs.  Okay.  They would know.  Okay. All right. Other than the other than the ACR entry, the negative ACR entry, have you ever had any other disciplinary action against you as an employee of the police department?  Yes.  And when has that occurred?  I'm not trying to be sarcastic, but during the 15 years that I've been on this job, the dates, I don't remember. Do you know whether this document comes from a larger manual or set of documents, if you know?  A It looks as though to be our manual.  Q I see. Okay. So is it fair to say that you're not intimately familiar with this particular document?  A That's fair.  Q Is that fair? All right. We'll set that one aside then. I'll take it back from you.  I'm looking back at Exhibit No. 3 again, on the second page, and I'm looking under "Raid Procedures" which is sort of in the middle of the page. I want to ask you a

As you can see, much of this activity log contains a list of defendants and tickets. We're not going to go through all that. I just want to look at these first few notations and ask you if you can elaborate on them. The first line says, "On duty roll call per Lieutenant Yost preparing for raid." Can you just describe briefly what occurred at that time? It's on duty roll call. Officers arrived on scene at our vice enforcement base, checked in, get our gear on, raiding gear, and the supervisors had a briefing. From

Do you recall whether that ever happened? No, I don't recall that.  Do you recall seeing any officers kick or step on any patrons?  No, I didn't see that.  Okay. Is it also fair to say that given what you recall of this particular location, that depending on where you were at in the building, you would not always be able to see what's happening in other locations in the building?  For example, if you were inside the building, you could not see what was happening on the patio and vice versa? That's correct.  Okay. Oh, and this might seem like a silly question, but let's just clarify. The shotgun person that we have talked about previously physically holds a shotgun, right? That's correct.  And as we have talked about this a little bit more, I'm just curious whether your memory has been refreshed. Do you remember whether you were the shotgun person for this	1 2 3 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22	Q A Q A Q A	Yes. Okay. It's not notated on here, but that would be in the TMU base secondary roll call. I see. Okay. The briefing would be done there. So the notation that begins at 12:15, as you recall, that's when the briefing occurred; is that right? That's fair. Okay. Now, let's just run through these first few items. Do you know whether there's any relation between  your having ticketed her — Let me rephrase this, actually.  Do you know whether you were the person who signed the notice of impoundment for Miss Wells?  I'm not sure if I did or didn't.  Okay.  As I stated earlier, there were several — there was an abundance of officers out there with the tow trucks and some impound eards. Basically, the impound eard is like  it's pretty much like an inventory of what's going on with the vehicle, so I'm not quite sure if some were already prepared prior to my being there or if I actually

10	DEPOSITION EXHIBITS 1 THROUGH 9 7	10	`	connection with this deposition today. Number one, as
11	Third Notice of Taking Videoconference	11		I said, I will be asking you some questions and I'll
12	Deposition	12		expect you to answer those questions. If there's
13	Raid Execution/Blind Pig	1.3		anything that you don't hear, that you don't understand
1.4	Anticipatory Search Warrant	14		or that you want repeated, please ask me and I will
15	DPD Activity Log	15		either repeat the question, clarify it or rephrase it.
1.6	DPD Crime Report	16		Do you understand that?
17	DPD Crime Report	17	A.
18	Officer Information Report	18	Q.	And as you are doing, it's important that you answer
19	Citizen Complaint Report	19		the questions verbally rather than just shaking your
20	Inter-Office Memorandum	20		head or saying uh-huh or um-hmm because it's harder for
21		21		the court reporter to write it down and get an accurate
22	: -	22		transcript. Do you understand that as well?

If you haven't found it, it's called Third  Notice of Taking Videoconference Deposition. It's not important. My only question is have you brought any materials with you to the deposition today?  No.  The materials that you read, the run sheet, the Crisnet and the affidavit were provided to you when you — by Mr. Ashford; is that correct?  That's correct.  Were you asked to bring any materials with you here today?  No, not to my knowledge.  Were you asked to look for any materials?	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16	ВУ	Is it correct that you ordered Police Officer Gray to put a location on a document which was not the actual location of an incident?  MR. ASHFORD: I'm going to object to that. I'm going to object to that based upon the deponent's Pifth Amendment rights, privileged and instruct him not to answer.  MR. GOODMAN: Okay. Let me rephrase the question then. Is it a fair statement that the charge was a charge that you instructed others to indicate a location on an official document which was not the actual location where an incident had occurred?  MR. ASHFORD: I'm going to assert the same objection based upon his Fifth Amendment right and instruct the witness not to answer.

And you understood it when you were a police officer working with that unit as well; am I right about that?  Yes.  Now, we've talked about raids and we've talked about blind pigs. What did you understand the purpose of a raid at a blind pig to be? What was to happen as a result of that raid?  I don't understand the question.  I'll try and rephrase it. When you raided a blind pig, what was it you were trying to accomplish as a law enforcement officer?  Well, me personally, I was trying to close the place down for illegal activity. 1.	Q	Let's start with when you say visual. Do you mean, you	1	some point that civilians that you encounter are going to
2	_	know, sitting outside a location and watching the activity	2	be charged with a crime?
3		outside?	3	MR. ASHFORD: Objection as to form.
4	Α	Yes.	4	THE WITNESS: I kind of know where you're going
5	Q	Okay. So we'll start with that. How many times have you	5	with it, but are you asking is it totally up to the

5	A My personal notes?	5	from the loiterers?
6	Q Yeah.	6	A Yes. That was done by Lieutenant Yost and Sergeant Buglo.
7	A I normally don't put personal notes on green tickets	7	Q Okay. So did you have any duties that involved dealing
8	because those tickets are forwarded to the court section,	8	with engagers or operators?
9	So if I have a young lady that's in college, and my ticket	9	A Only when I had the interaction with them at the table.
10	is going to affect her getting her financial aid,	10	Q Oh, I see. Okay.
1.1	sometimes I'll put "college student" so we can speak with	11	A Or I probably had interaction with them first coming in.

RE: Release of Vehicle Used in Alleged Violation of Nuisance Laws

Case Number: 08-VEU-75 Seizure Date: 5/31/2008

Description of Vehicle: 2001 Nissan Altima

VIN: 1N4DL01D31C236660

The above named vehicle was allegedly used in the public streets in the County of Wayne for the alleged violation of the Michigan nuisance abatement laws, forbidding lewdness, assignation, prostitution, or controlled substances as defined in §7104 of the Public Health Code. It was seized by officers of Detroit Police Dep. under the Bennis case and MCL 600.3801 et seq., which makes the vehicle subject to possible civil abatement. The Wayne County Prosecutor's Office has explained to the understanding owner(s) his/her/their right to contest the abatement of the vehicle pursuant to MCL 600.3801 et seq. and the undersigned agrees to wave the right to contest.

The Wayne County Prosecutor's Office has received a redemption payment of $900.00, payable to the Wayne County Prosecutor's Office. Based on the payment of the redemption cost, the Wayne County Prosecutor's Office is authorizing the release of the above named vehicle and associated impound lien. The owner of the vehicle must request that the towyard operator notify the "Notification and Crime Reporting Unit" (formerly T.C.R.U.) that the impound lien is to be released. The owner of the vehicle is responsible for the costs of towing and storage payable to the towing company. Should another violation of the nuisance abatement laws of this state involving this or another vehicle owned by you and driven by yourself or Jame Andrew Gross, the settlement fee for redemption of the vehicle will be increased. This precludes any action in this case regarding the vehicle and constitutes a final settlement of the civil nuisance abatement case. This settlement is independent from and has no effect on any criminal charges that may arise from the same incident. Respectfully Submitted,

Alan N Gross,

Owner / Secured/Creditor

Probably about three weeks.  Okay. So then what happened after they told you it was at a Bagley towing yard?  We got in the car and drove about 20 minutes to this other towing yard.  And were you driving one of your other vehicles?  Yes.  Okay. What happened after you arrived at the other towing yard?  We were there for a half hour or 40 minutes. They offered us the keys to a car saying that they had our car and it turned out to be a very nice Chevy

Then they sent us to the Detroit Police Department,  I think it was the 1st Precinct, the main station  right next door.  On 1300 Beaublen?  Yes, that sounds correct.  Then what happened?  And then they located where they believed our car to be, gave us that information, I guess contacted them, I don't remember that for sure, to let them know that we were coming, but I don't think so. I think they just located it in the computer and sent us there to go get it.  Okay.
